

2nd International Conference on Tibetan Medicine

Date: 25th – 27th October 2012

Venue: Dharamsala, India

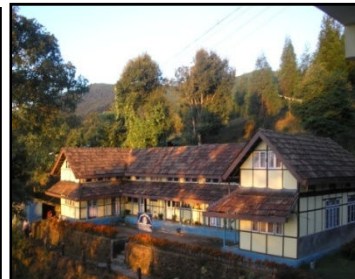

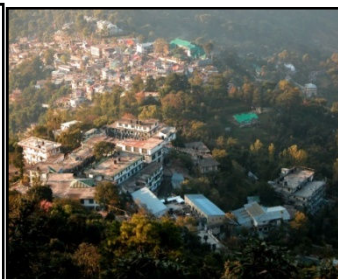

Jointly Organized by:

Central Council of Tibetan Medicine (CCTM) Dharamsala

Tibetan Medical and Astro. Institute (TMAI) Dharamsala

Central University of Tibetan Studies (CUTS) Sarnath, Varanasi

Chagpori Tibetan Medical Institution (CTMI) Darjeeling

1. About the Conference:

Tibetan medicine with a history of more than 2500 years is based on the unique system of indigenous medicine practiced in Tibet for hundreds of years with the integration of wisdom from various Asian medical systems. The growing popularity of Tibetan medicine worldwide due to its holistic approach and its multi-faceted wisdom, the responsibility to share and propagate the true essence of Tibetan Medicine has fallen on us to avoid any misrepresentation of our rich culture. Conducting conference is one of the most effective approaches to share the profound knowledge of Tibetan Medicine to doctors and the interested individuals as well as to benefit all suffering beings. Therefore, the idea of this 2nd international conference on Tibetan medicine comes into birth. We had invited Tibetan medical scholars from all around the world to explore their knowledge and practical experiences in accordance to the title of the conference. This conference will be the 2nd international conference on Tibetan Medicine, considering the medical conference held at samye, Tibet during King Tresong Duetsen in the 8th century as the 1st international medical conference.

2. Host Organizations:

Central Council of Tibetan Medicine (CCTM)

Central Council of Tibetan Medicine (CCTM), Gangchen Kyishong, Dharamsala – 176215, India, was established on 5th Jan. 2004.
