

Dr. Tashi Dawa did his primary education (up to Class X) from TCV School, Bylakuppe and higher secondary education from Upper TCV School, Dharamsala in 1995. He completed his Menpa Kachupa Degree from Central University of Tibetan Studies (CUTS), Varanasi in 2005. During the course of study, he served as the President of Ex-TCV Student's Association in 1998, Executive member of RTFM from 1999-2002, Varanasi Chapter, General Secretary of Student's Welfare Fund Committee (SWFC) in 2003 and Treasurer of Gelugpa Student's Welfare Committee in 2004. He worked as a Guest lecturer at the Department of Bhot Cikitsa Vidya, Faculty of Tibetan Medicine and Astro. Science, Central University of Tibetan Studies (CUTS) for the period 2006-2009. Simultaneously, he practiced Tibetan Medicine and undertook responsibility as Consultant and Coordinator for departmental Units and Projects. Presently he is pursuing as a regular scholar of Menrampa (Post Graduate in General Surgery, Sowa Rigpa) degree at the Central University of Tibetan Studies, Varanasi since 2009.