

Dr. Tsering Tsamchoe was born in Bylakuppe Tibetan Settlement in South India in 1977. She went to CST School, Bylakuppe and later joined Central University of Tibetan Studies (CUTS), Varanasi in 1992 for her higher studies. She studied from 1995 to 2001 to complete her Menpa Kachupa Degree and continued to work at the same institute as a researcher for 3 years. She had numerous opportunities to visit various places in India and abroad to conduct talks on Tibetan Medicine and health talks and also conducted Tibetan medical consultations. She now works as a research officer at the CCTM Office, Dharamsala.